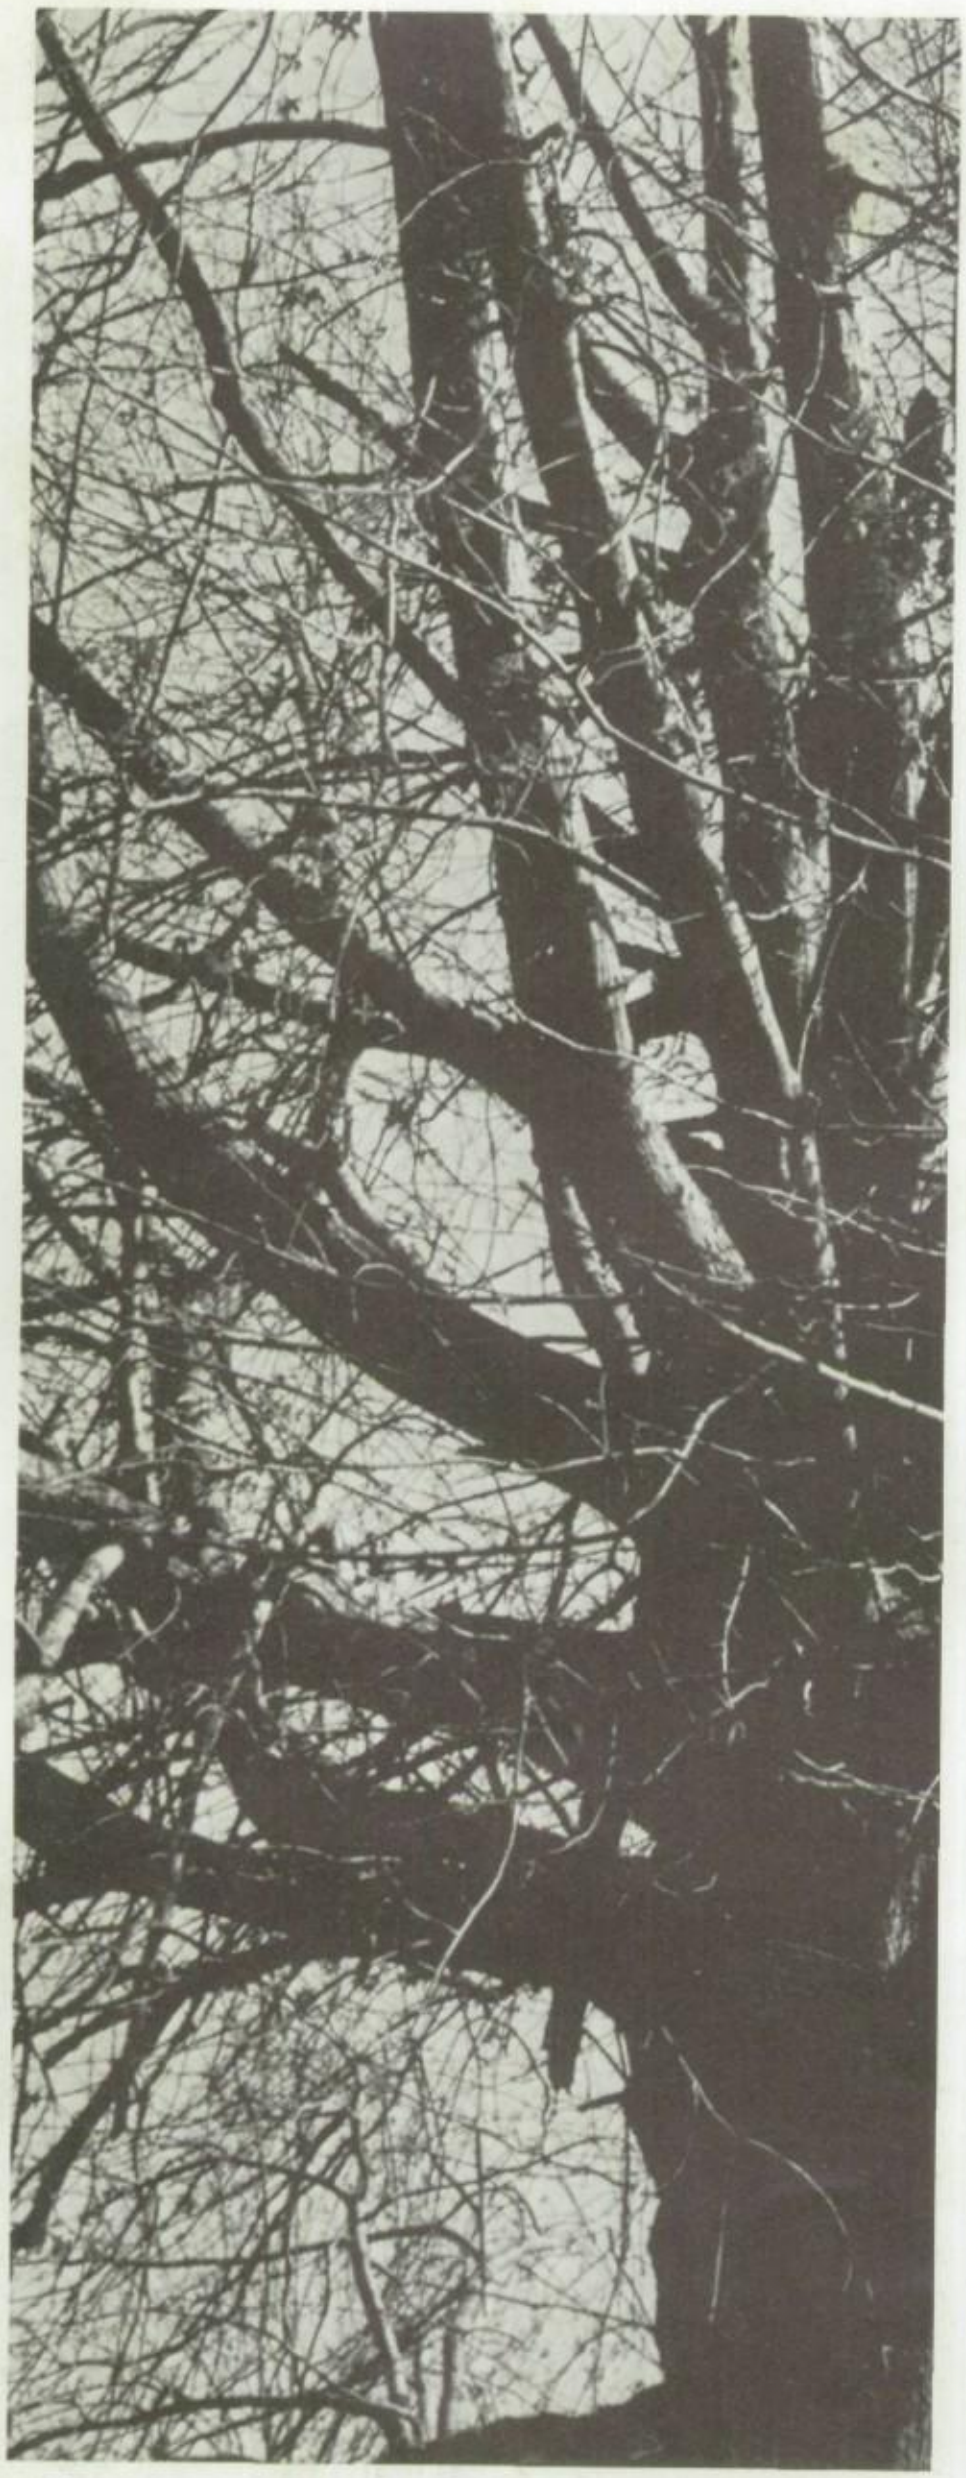
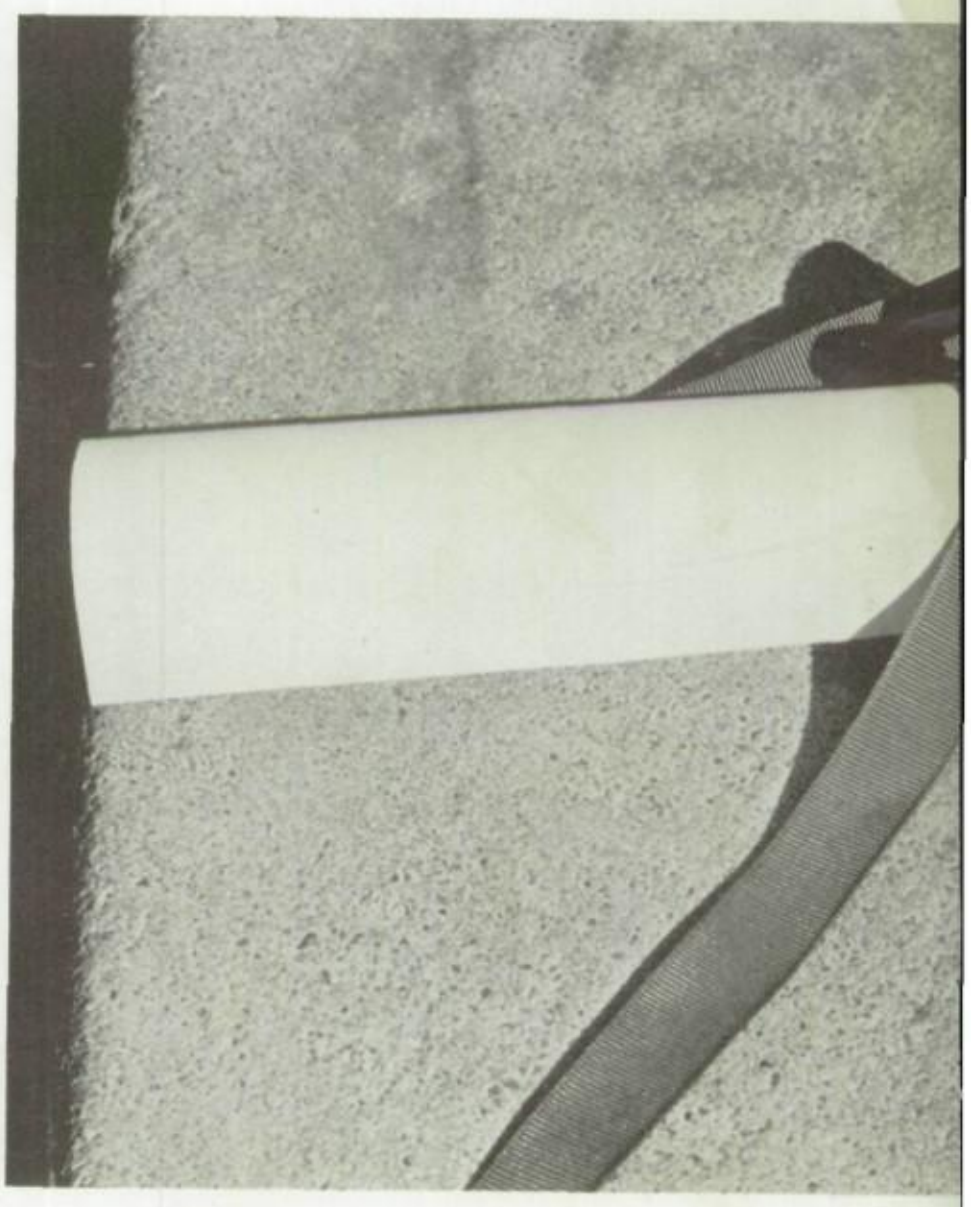
THIS GENERATION . . .

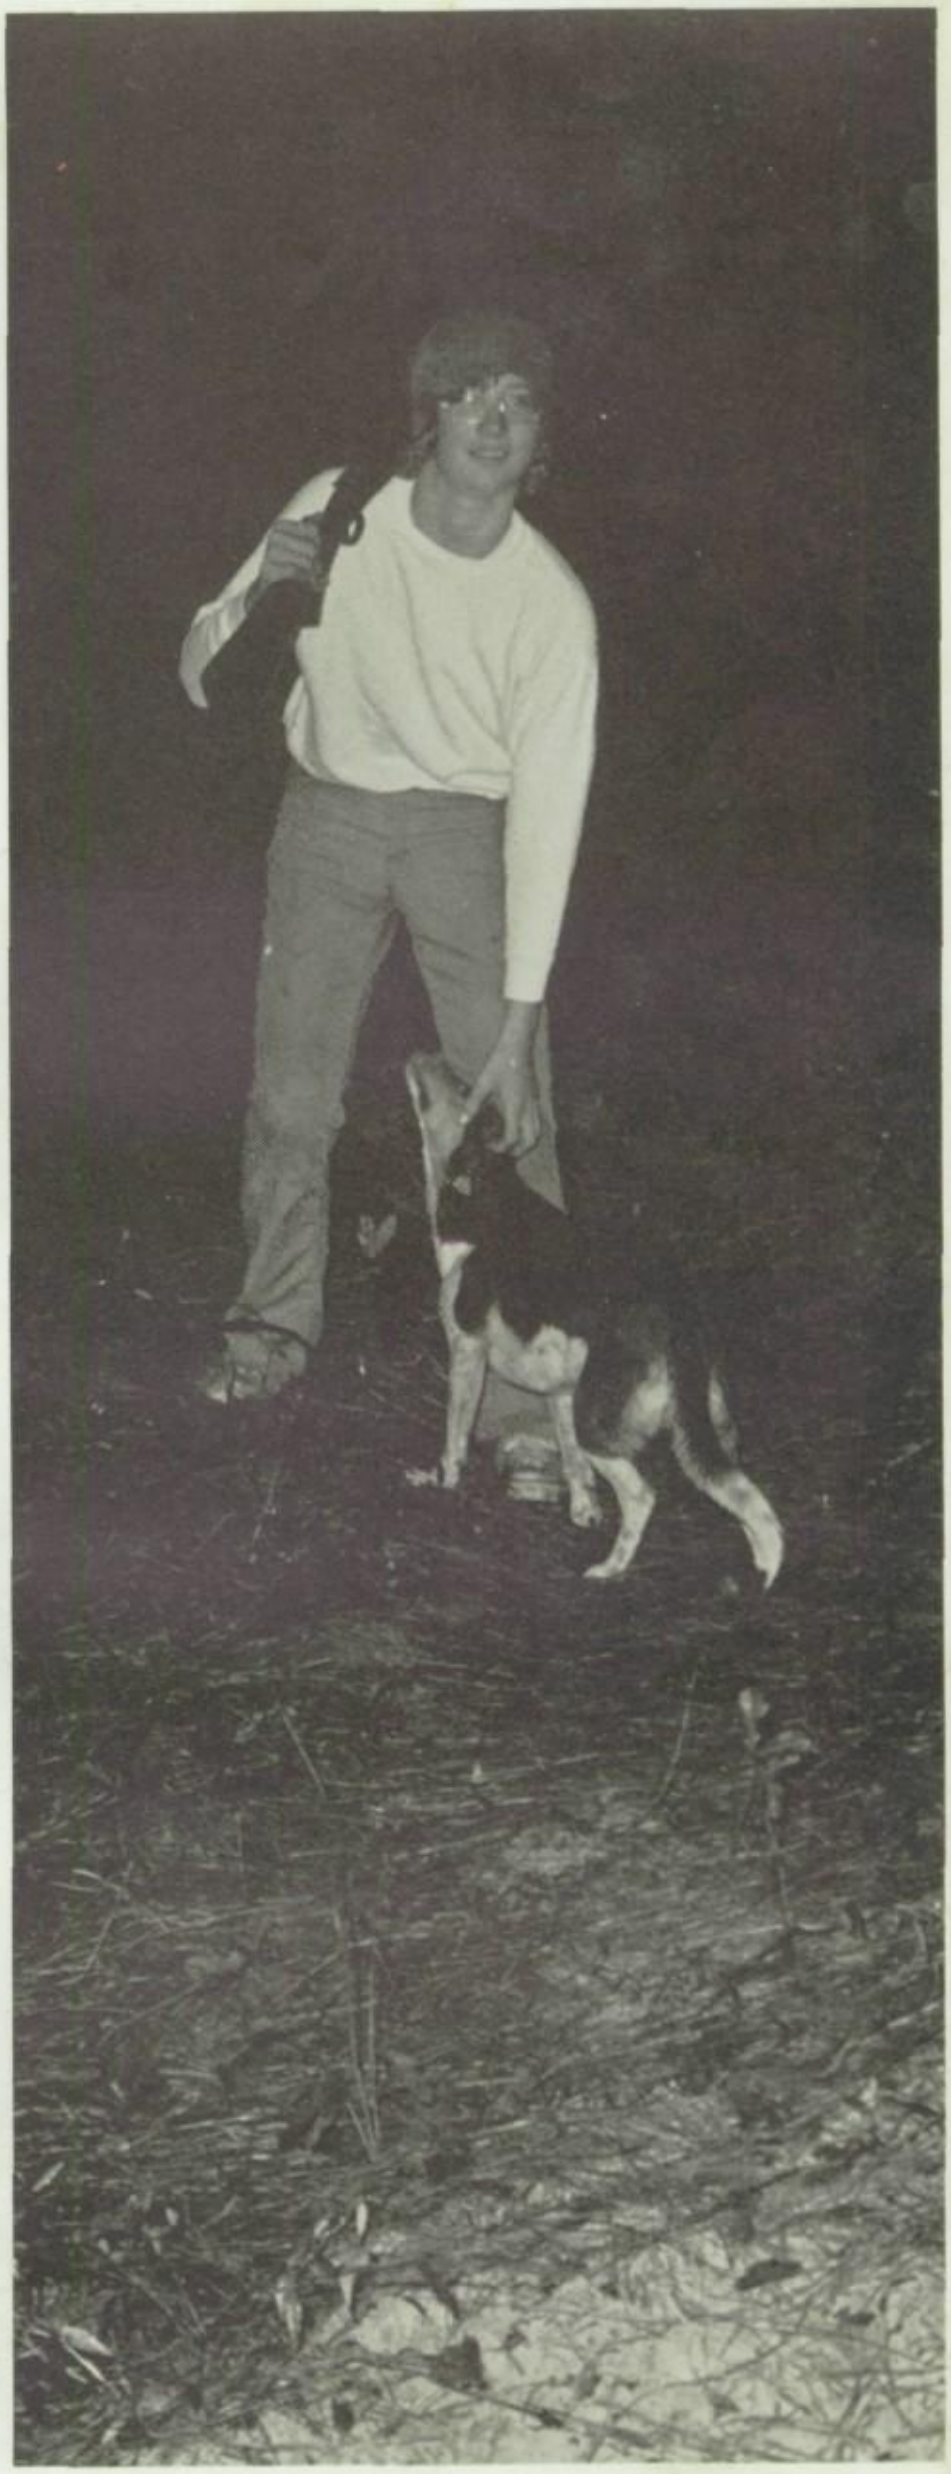


ENDURANCE

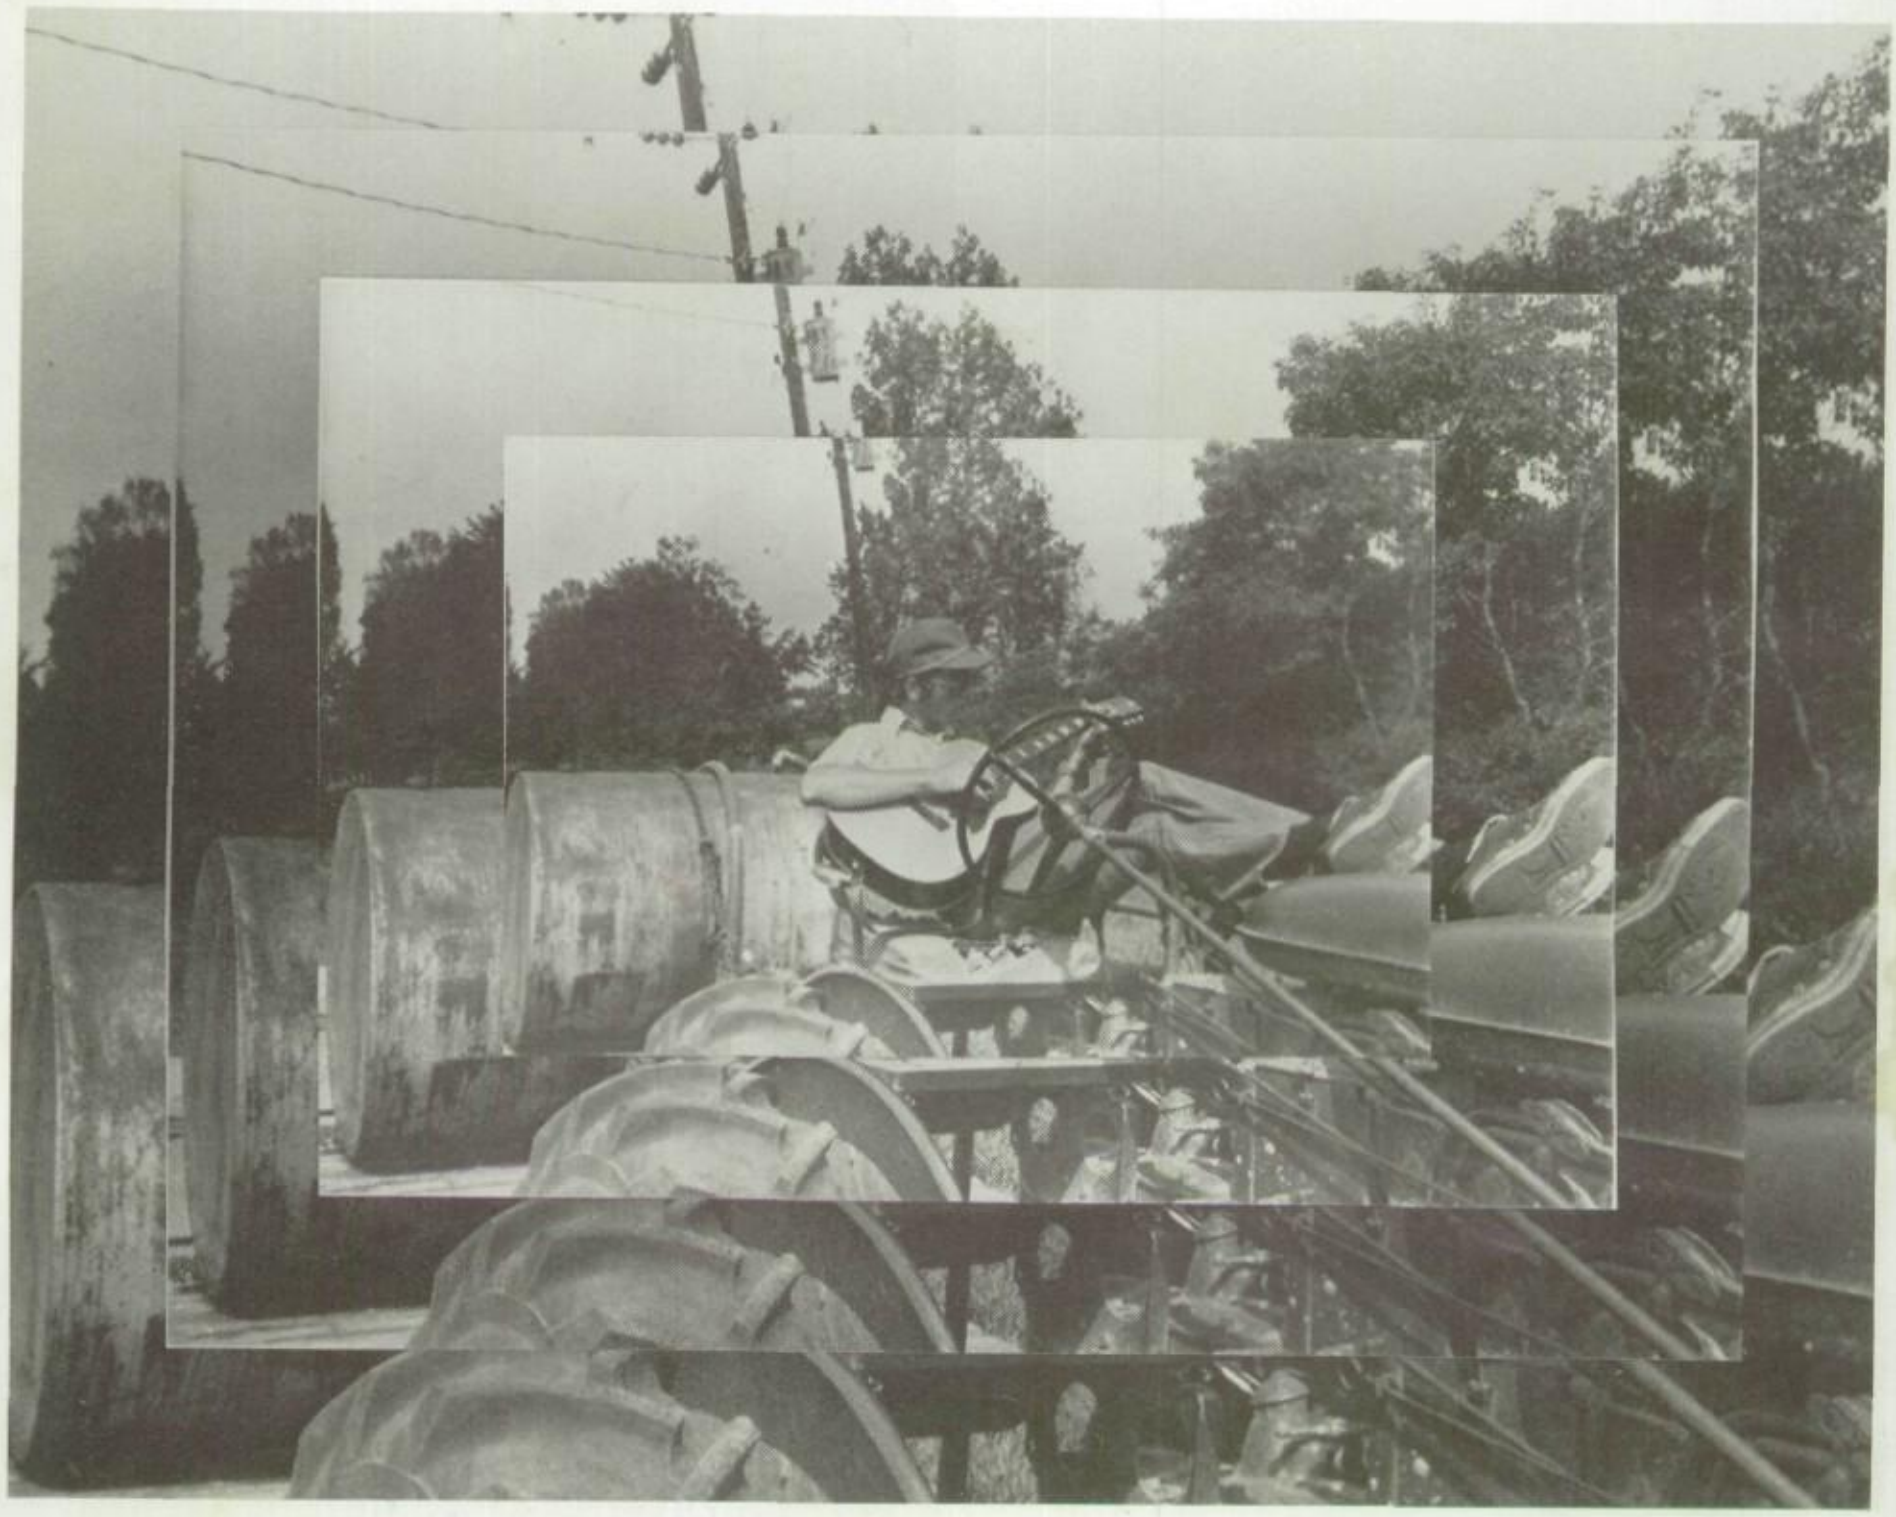
AWARENESS

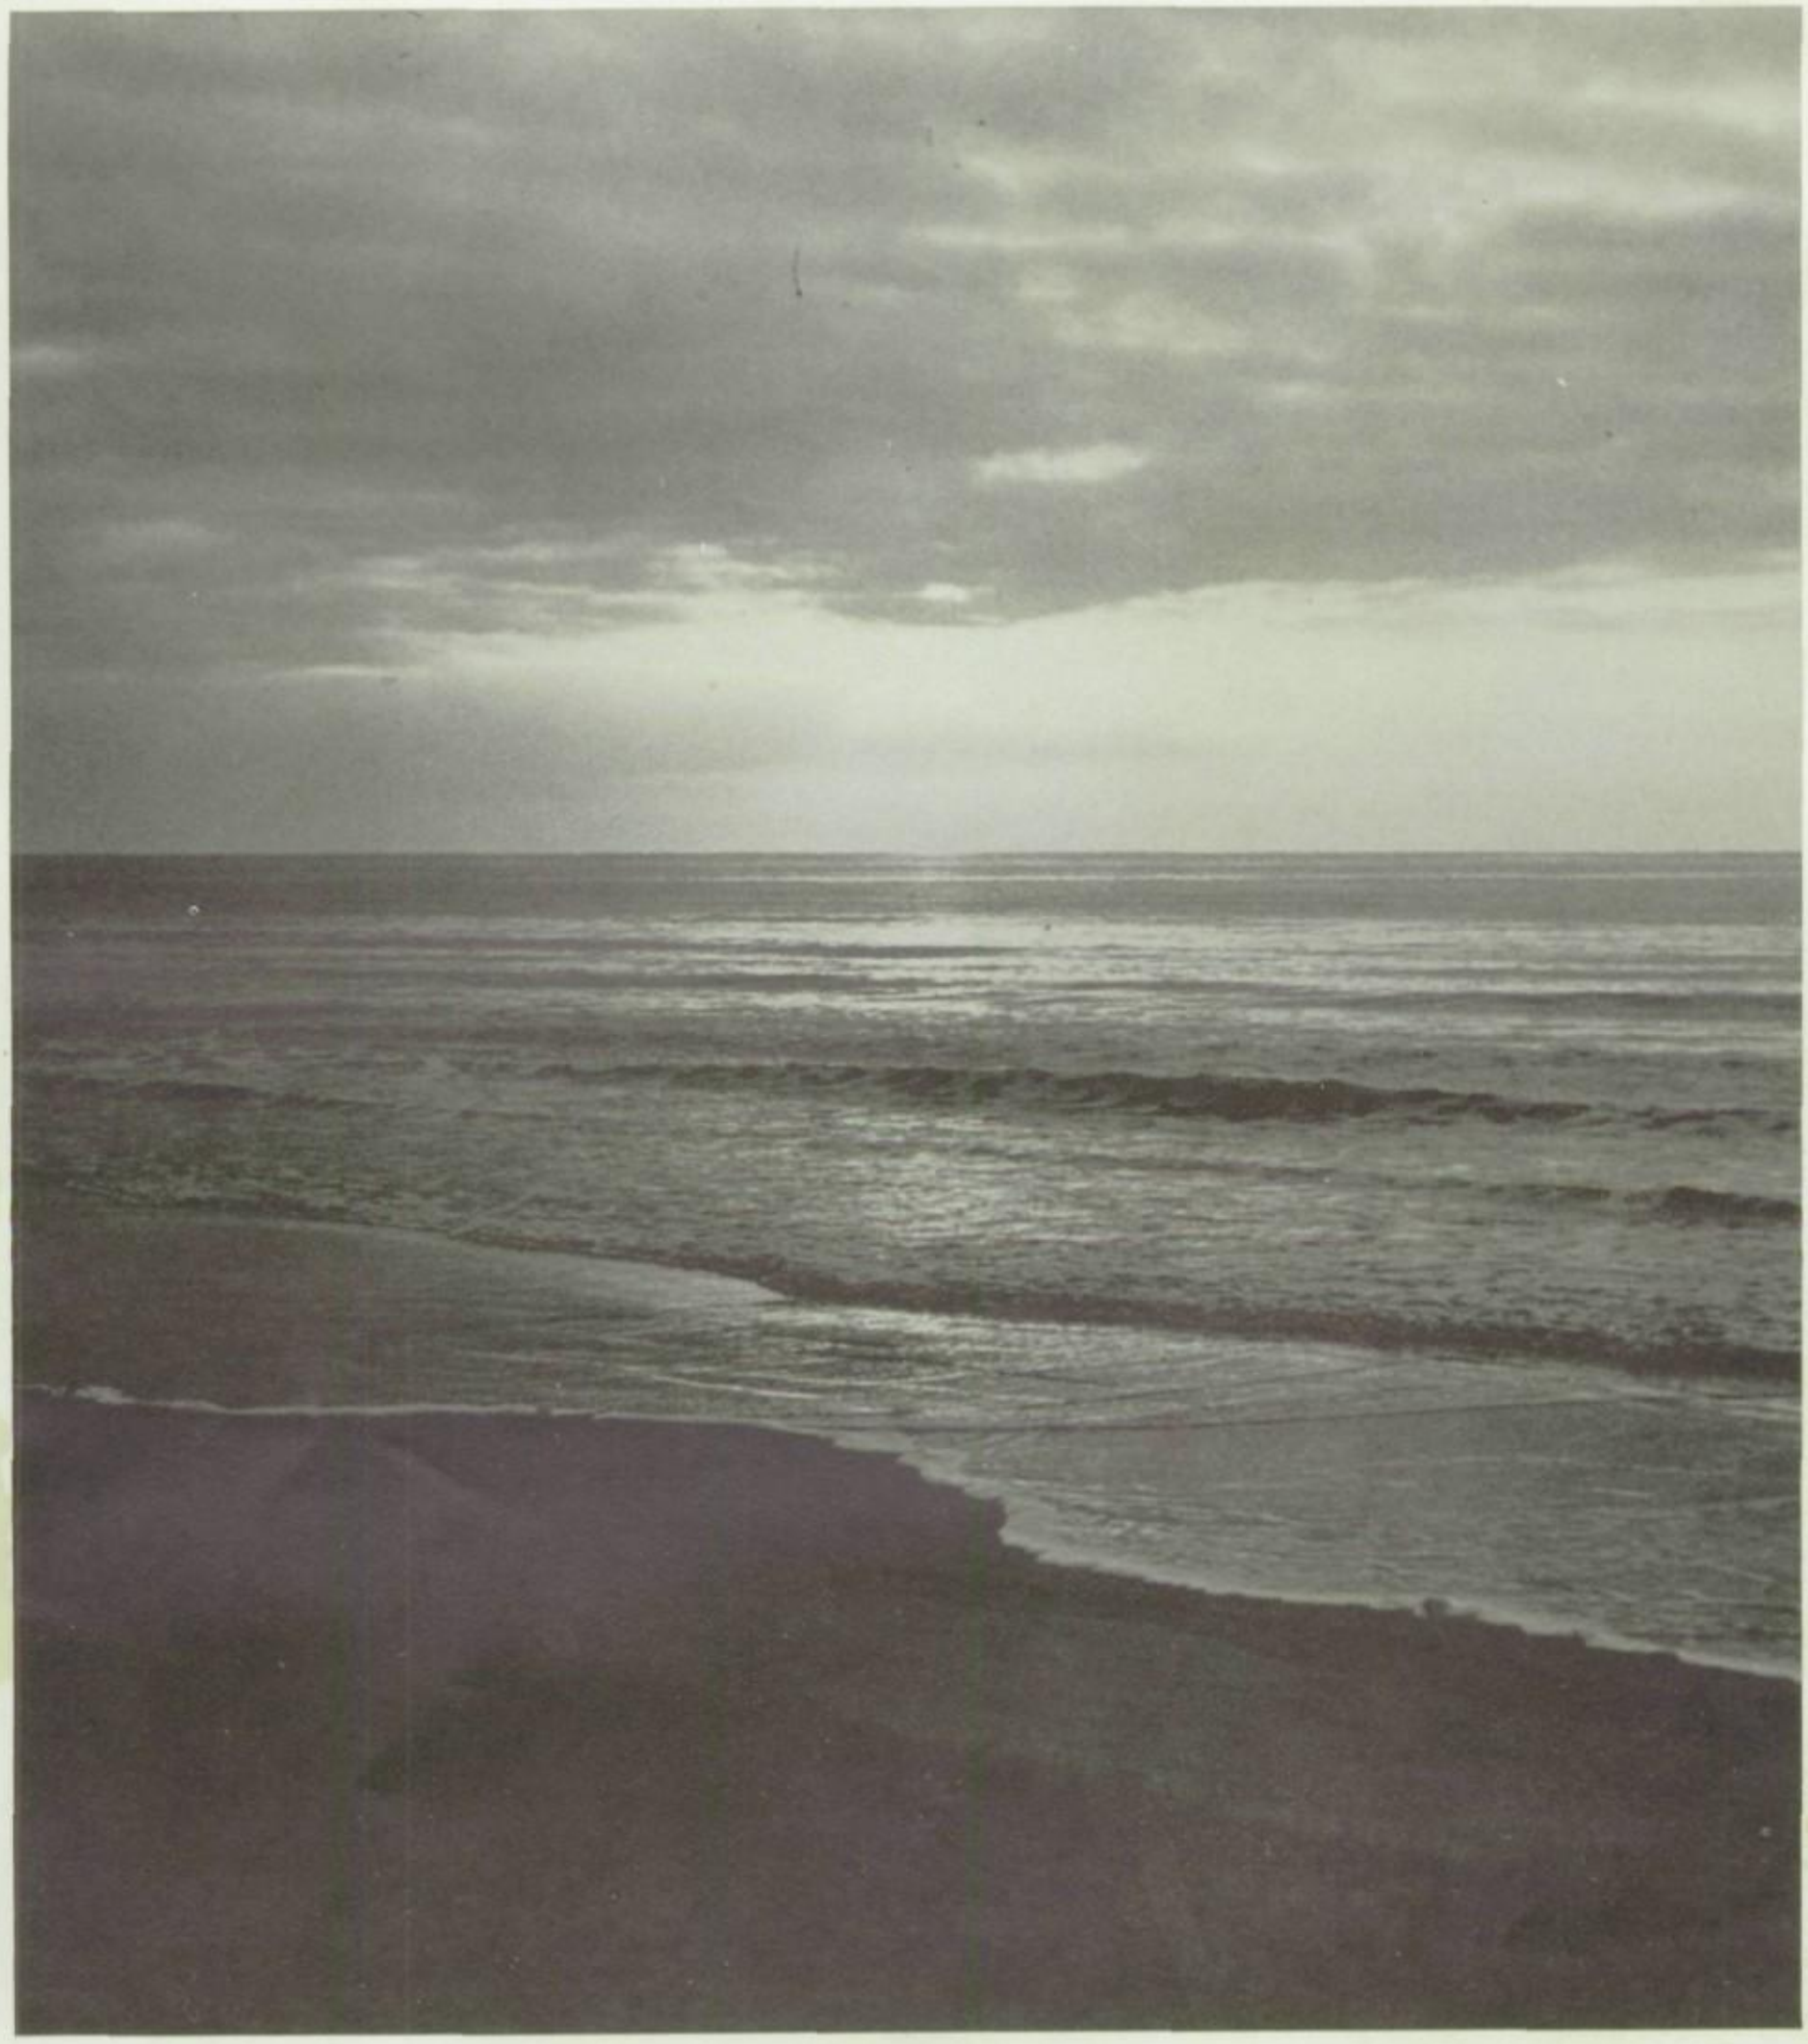


ENTHUSIASM



STAN??





The world is not yet finished,
but is understood as engaged in a history.
It is therefore the world of possibilities,
the world in which we can serve the future,
promised truth and righteousness and peace.
This is an age of diaspora,
of sowing in hope, of self-surrender and sacrifice,
for it is an age which stands within the horizon of a new future.

Jurgen Moltmann

Spectator 1974 is dedicated not to an individual, but to this generation. In so dedicating it, we dedicate ourselves to future generations in hopes that they will continue our efforts to make a better world. We, the Specatator Staff, feel that we could not in good conscience use the money that we designated for color in our annual with the poverty and other social injustices which plague our nation. After much consideration we decided that our money could be best used by combination of organizations such as Peace Corps, Vista, etc. This organization is known as ACTION. As a part of our generation we have given a part of ourselves, and in doing so we hope others will follow our example.

Each child is a new being a potential prophet a new spiritual prince,
a new spark of life
precipitated into the outer darkness.

Who are we to decide that it is hopeless?

A person's decisions
are not made for him by instinct.
He has to make them.
He is faced with alternatives
and there is a risk of failure in every decision he makes.
The price
that man pays for consciousness is insecurity.
He can stand his insecurity
by being aware
and accepting the human condition,
and by the hope
that he will not fail even though he has no guarantee of sucess.

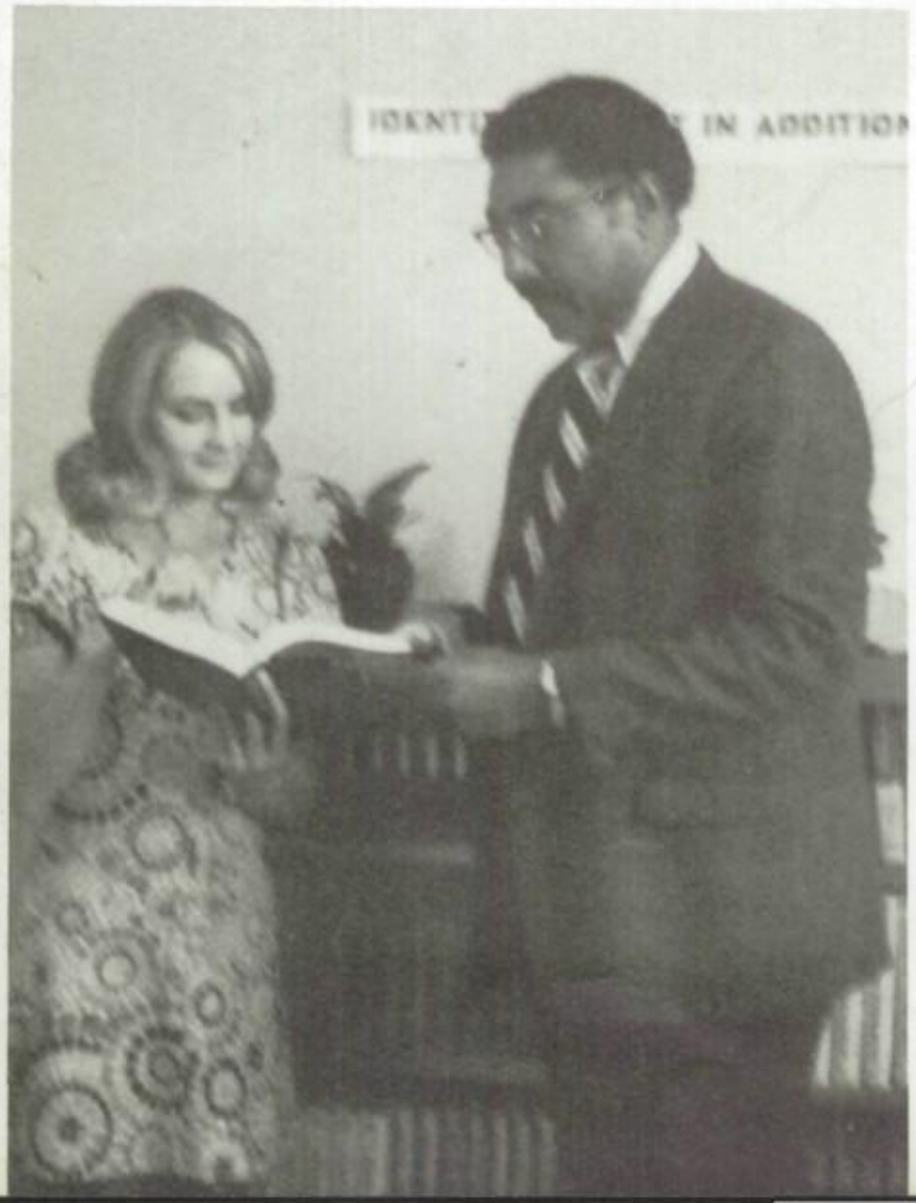
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY



The National Honor Society is a group of seniors chosen by teachers on the basis of the students' leadership, character, scholarship and service. The student has to uphold a B average while in the Society. The first group of seniors are chosen at the end of their junior year. The next group of seniors may be inducted after the first six weeks. Then near the end of the second semester, juniors are inducted for the next school year.

This year the National Honor Society had a tutoring service. Due to lack of student interest and involvement, this had to be canceled. The officers are: Tony Jernigan, president; Lawerence Hughes, vice-president; Colleen Lewis, secretary; Donna Norris, treasurer and Julie Dorman, reporter. The sponsors are: Mrs. Wilson and Mr. House.

Above: Rodney Fonvielle, Delois Williams, and Ronald Alford.

The duty of the marshalls is to serve as ushers at graduation exercises. They are nominated by Junior class homeroom teachers and then voted upon by the Senior class. The nominee with the most votes becomes the cheif marshall. This person leads the Seniors in their graduation march. The persons pictured on this page served as marshalls for last year's Senior class of '73.

MISS DAR

The DAR Good Citizens Award is given by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Each school is entitled to one nominee. The award is limited to senior class girls. She is selected on the basic of these qualities: dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. She is recommended by school officials. Then she answers a state questionnaire. This enters her in the district competition. Each local nominee receives a certificate and a DAR Good Citizens pin. Susan Fidler is our local nominee.

MISS SPECTATOR

If personality is an unbroken series
of successful gestures, then there was something gorgeous about them,
some heightened sensitivity
to the promises of life, as if they were related to one of those intricate machines that register earthquakes
ten thousand miles away.
It was an extraordinary gift
for hope,
a romatic readiness
such as we have never found in any other person and which it is not likely we shall ever find again.

F. Scott Fitzgerald

Due to a tie in our votes for Miss Spectator, we, the Spectator Staff, give this award to both Lynn Nesmith and Donna Norris.

The 1973 Tabor City Red Devils had another great season. It was to be expected with our coaches, players, cheerleaders, and fans. In the fall of our school year football is really in the air with such a winning team. The only real hardships our players have had this season were biting the dust at Acme Delco and playing in the fog at South Brunswick. Tabor City has never played under these conditions, but it didn't bother the Red Devils a bit. Some of our scores were high enough to be basketball scores. Participation demands a combination of physical strength, coordination, loyal dedication, true sportsmanship, an alert mind, enthusiasm, teamwork, and good character — all of which are in turn developed and improved through experience involved, true of a Red Devil. It really makes everyone happy to have such a great team. The seniors get sad around the end of the season thinking about not being able to play for Tabor City again. Tabor City High School would just like to say again we are very proud of our football program.

This year Girls' Basketball has been added to our extra curricular activities. This is a great advantage to all girls who are interested. The number that showed a desire to play proves to everyone that there is a need for girls' activities in our school. Like other teams they also need our support. In this age of Women's Lib, Tabor City is no exception in the trend of equal opportunity.

Many young people are becoming disillusined with government, in part because of Watergate and corollary scandals. The Student Council, by providing students practical experience in self-government , hopes to encourage young people to become more involved in their government, national as well as student.

The Student Council has provided the students with access to a telephone, free of charge. We have distributed information concering the municipal, county, and state elections of November 6. The purpose of this action was to better inform the citizens of the issues to be considered and encourage them to vote. An excellent voter turnout was realized, hopefully, a result of this effort. A trophy case was expected to arrive in December. A main objective of the Student Council this year is to increase input of student ideas.

Because of circumstances which inhibited his ability to carry out the duties of the office, Tony Jernigan resigned from the Vice-Presidency of the Student Council. As provided for by the Student Council Constitution, a special election was held, and the members of the council elected Loretta Ward (pictured at left) to fill the vacancy created by the resignation.

The Science Club is very concerned with the environment of Tabor City. Pictures of the sources of pollution are being sent with letters asking for help to the industrial plants, congressmen, and school superintendents. The club has sold ecology stickers to make money to improve our environment. The club has also studied the positions of the stars through astronomy by listening to lectures on the subject and observing the stars.

The Future Homemakers of America of Tabor City High School are very involved this year in trying to get an extensive "Inside View" of the recent concerns of FHA for 1973-74 such as: Program Action Impact, Encounter, In-Depth Projects and Task Force Meeting. The Chapter is very grateful in having District, State and National representation. Miss Everlene Davis is the local FHA Advisor and District FHA Advisor for 2973-74. Rhonda McJunkins, a junior, will begin her duties in April 1974 as State FHA Treasurer for 1974-75. Wanda Brunson, a senior, is serving as National Committee Member for Future Homemakers of North Carolina. This year, FHA'ers have been involved in the Tabor City High School Air Condition Drive. They have contributed to this by FHA members going into the communities and various house-hold items.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club consists of four year students and second year students. Recently the French four students, which is the first French four class held in Tabor City High School, inducted the second year class consisting of twenty members. The induction was a French dinner prepared by our sponsor, Madame Kimrey. Officers were chosen after dinner. They are: Ruthann Burroughs, president; Kevin Taylor, vice-president; Cynthia Dewitt, secretary; Lewis Wright, treasurer; and Mitchell Garrell, historian. During our monthly meetings we have speakers, for example; Mrs. Woody, our former French teacher, showed slides from her recent visit to France for our September meeting. Following the tradition, the French Club put on their annual French play. This play took us all back a few years in our childhood. As a contribution from the French club, money was raised for an air conditioner for the French room. The French students are generally becoming acquainted with French customs, ideas, and people, thus providing the students with a better understanding and appreciation for the French language.

LIBRARY CLUB

Membership in the Library Club is restricted to those students who work in the library or who have worked at least one year. It is primarily a service organization. Projects for this year include a stationery sale, a contribution to the air conditioning fund, and participation in and attendance at the state conference of NCHLSA in Durham, N.C.

DECA CLUB

Cooperative programs in Distributive Education were created between 1937 and 1942. These early clubs adopted many names such as Future Retailers, Future Distributors, Distributors, Future Merchants, and Distributive Education Clubs. The first conference that led to the adoption of a resolution to form a national organization was held in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1947. "The growth and development of DECA has been rapid," according to Mr. Dorman, the chapter's advisor. "Many interested educators and business organizations have given their advice, their cooperation and their support. Past growth and plans for the future give every indication that DECA is destined to become one of the leading youth organizations of our time." DECA club officers are left to right: David Herring, President; Beverly Hardee, Vice-President; Rodney Small, Secretary; Roger Phipps, Treasurer; and Danny Worley, Parliamentarian.

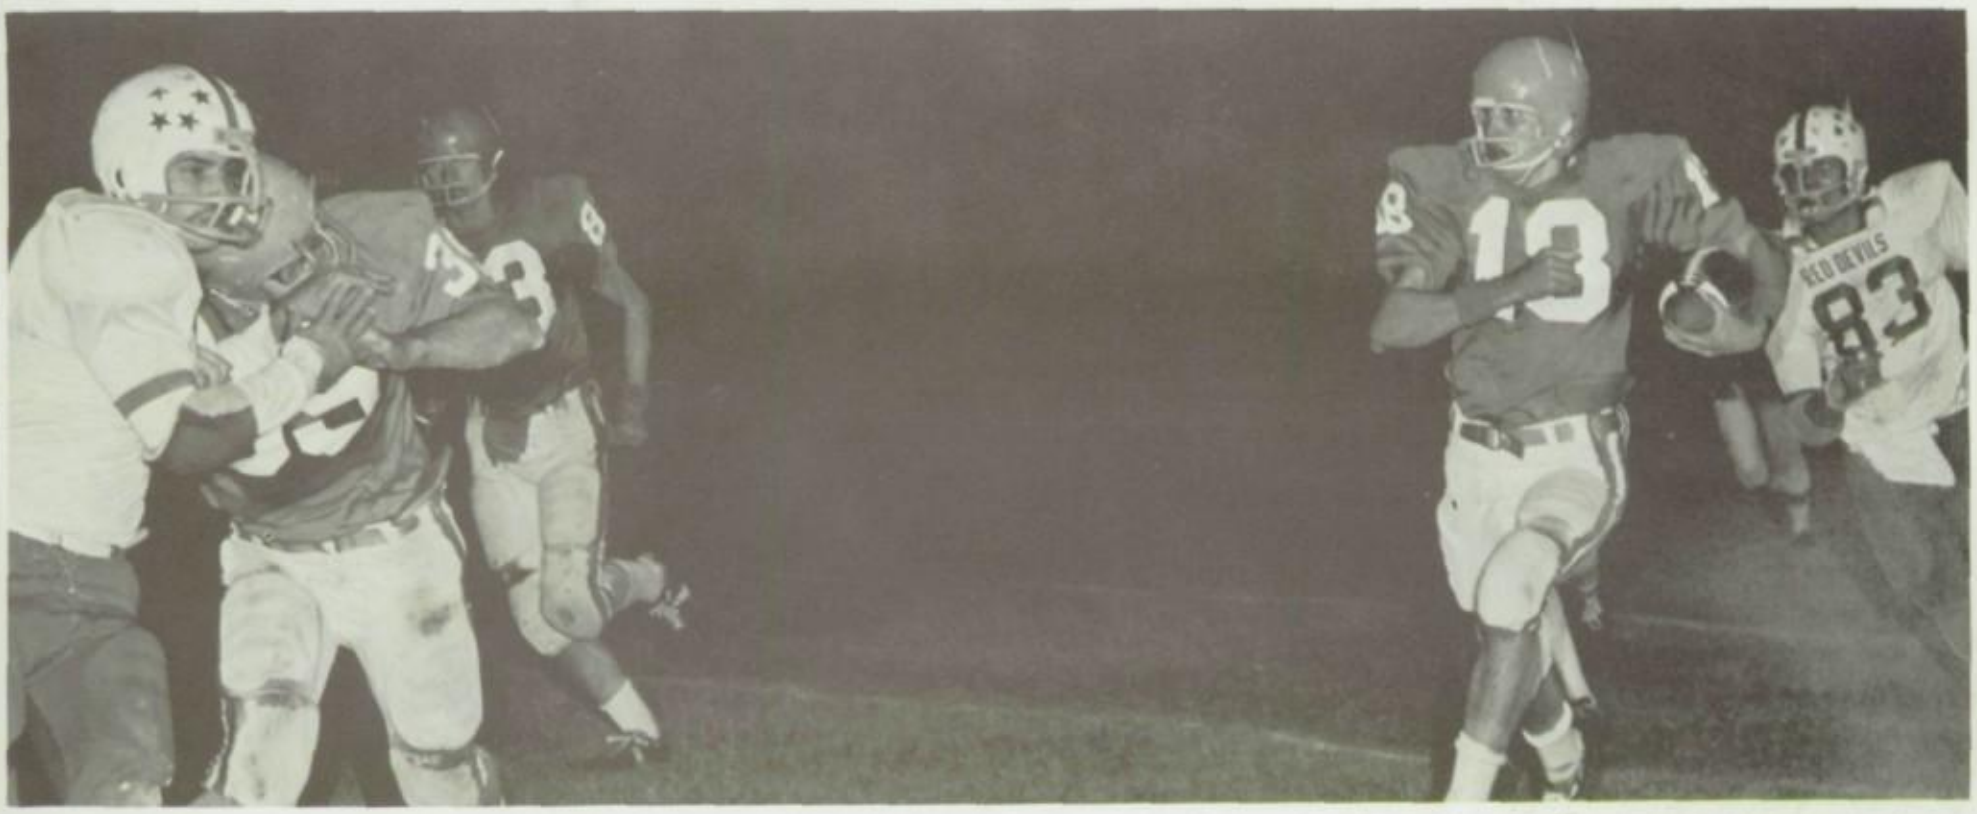
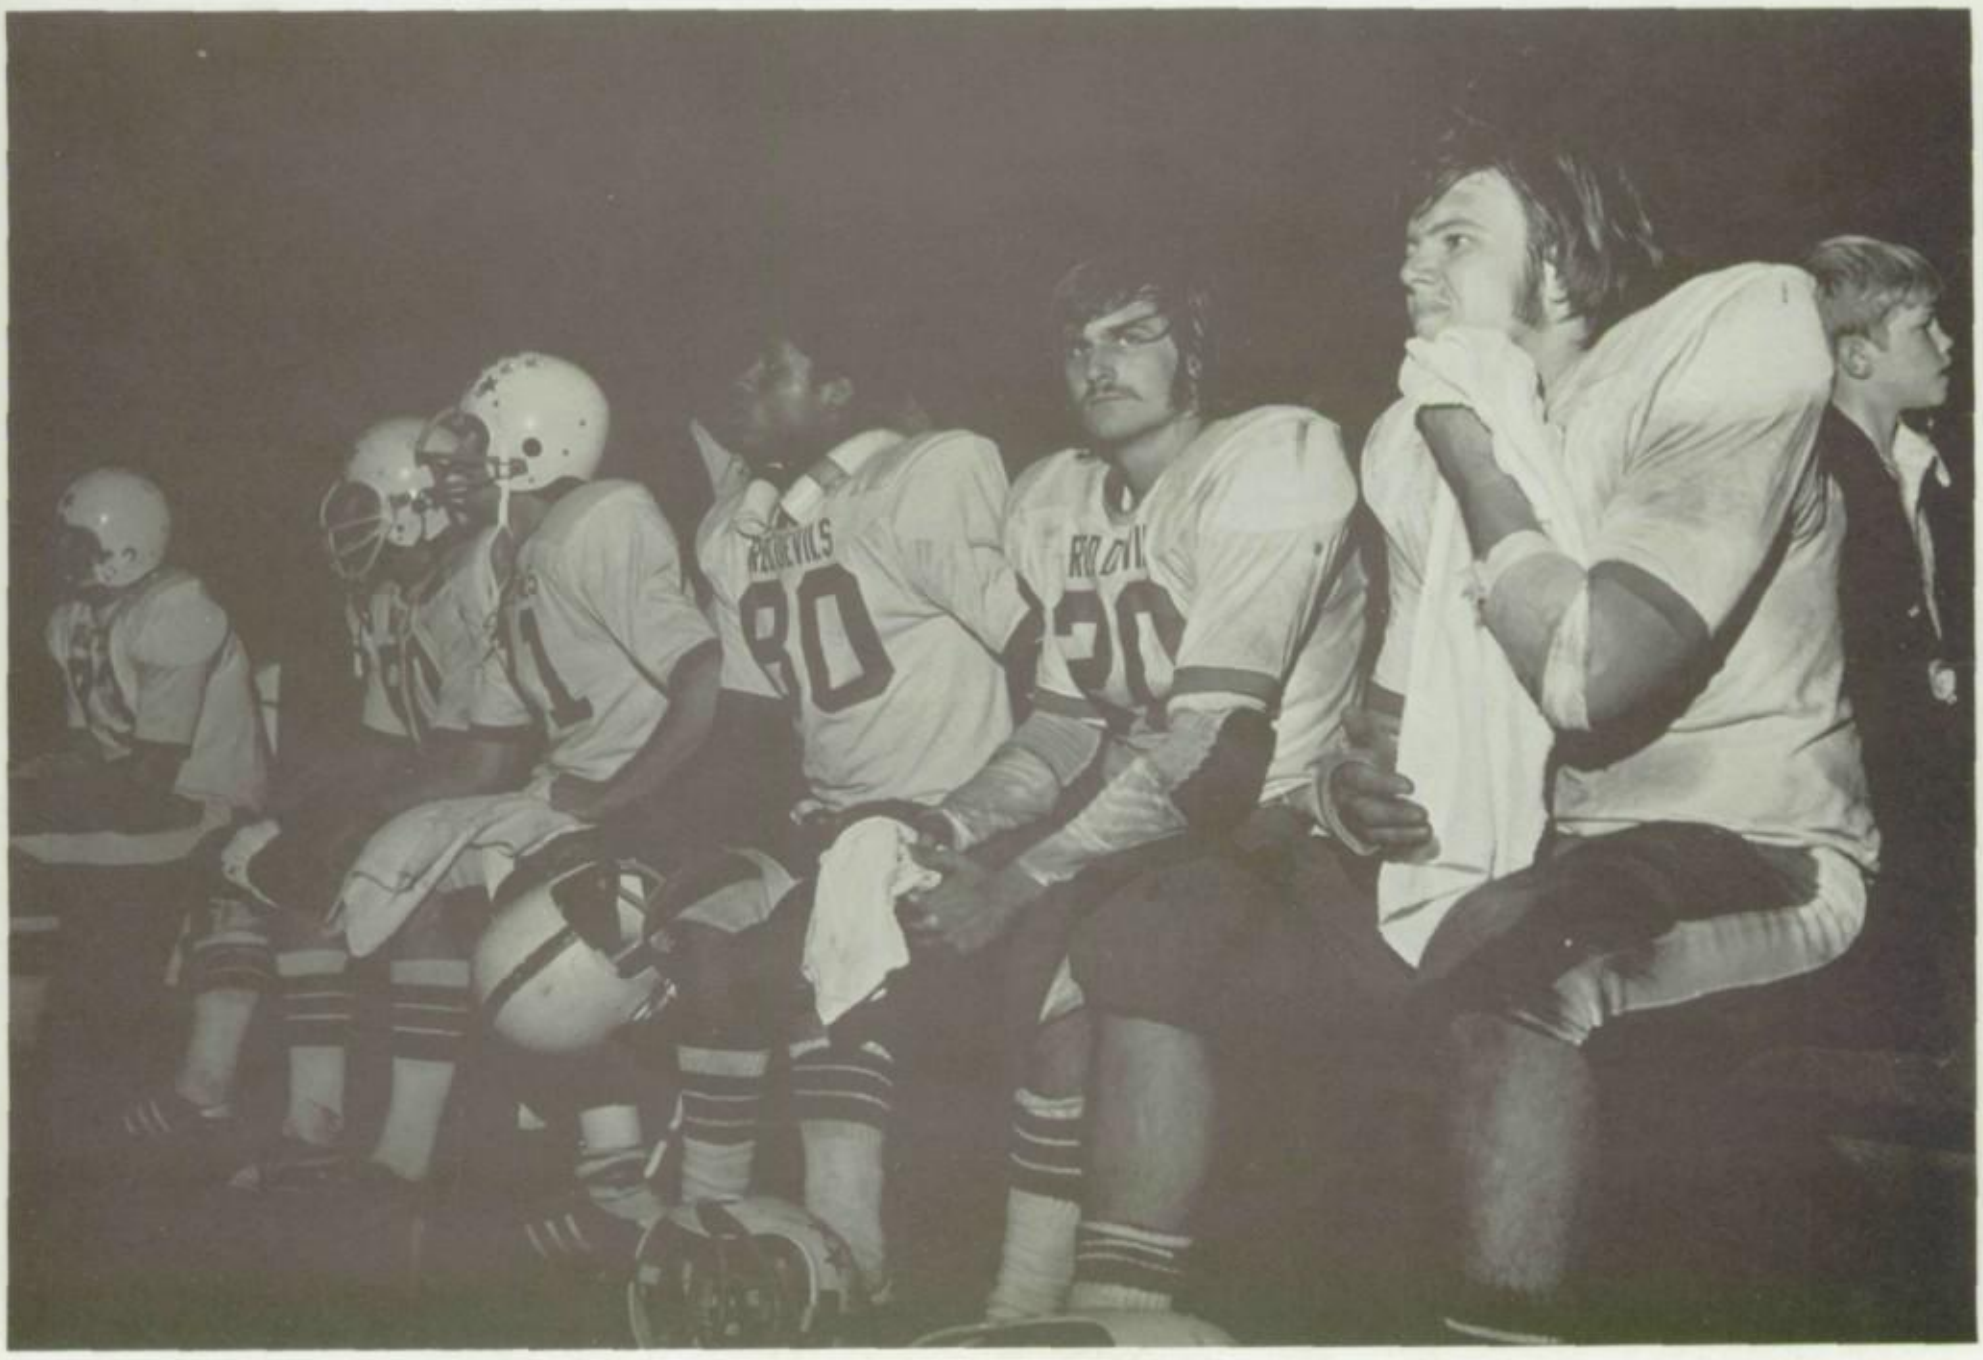
RED DEVILS SECOND IN STATE!

Unusually warm weather for the month of November set the stage for the first of the post-season playoff games for the coveted title of state AA champs. A large crowd was present for the hard hitting contest. The hometown crowd went away happy as their football team walked away in the end with the title of district I champions. One of the largest crowds ever to attend a football game at Civitan Field piled in here Friday night to see their football boys "bring home the bacon" in a hard-hitting scrapper with golden Eagles of Robersonville for the Southeastern Championship title. A long bus ride topped off with a night in a motel made this victory one of the sweetest ever. Three Trailways buses full of Tabor City followers made the long trip up to the Virginia line to support their team. The Red Devils squeaked by on a last quarter touchdown by "Round Man" Cartrette. EASTERN STATE CHAMPS!! Colder than a ! ? $ *& # !. That was the way to describe the hardest hitting game that Tabor City has ever been involved in. A hugh crowd watched their football team lose their first game of the season. This game was closer than the score indicated. The Devils, even though they came out on the short end, wear the title of STATE AA RUNNERS-UP proudly!!





WORLD NEWS '73

Richard Nixon delivers his second inaugural address from the steps of the Capitol. In November, 1972, he defeated Senator George McGovern for the Presidency by a landslide popular vote — 61% to 38% (After seven months of "Watergate," however, a public opinion poll conducted by the Oliver Quayle Organization on August 8, 1973 revealed that Americans perferred Senator McGovern — 51% to 49% — over President Nixon.)

Nearly three months after the proclamation by Henry Kissinger that "peace is at hand," peace finally arrives on January 23, ending American involvement in the longest and most divisive war in our nation's history — (the war in Vietnam.) As Kissinger and his North Vietnamese counterpart, Le Duc Tho, smile after negotiating the peace accord, Americans prepare for . . .

. . . the return of the Prisoner's of War once held by the North Vietnamese. Many Americans, relieved because of the end of American involvement in the war, seemed to care little that . . .

. . . the fighting and killing continued in Southeast Asia.

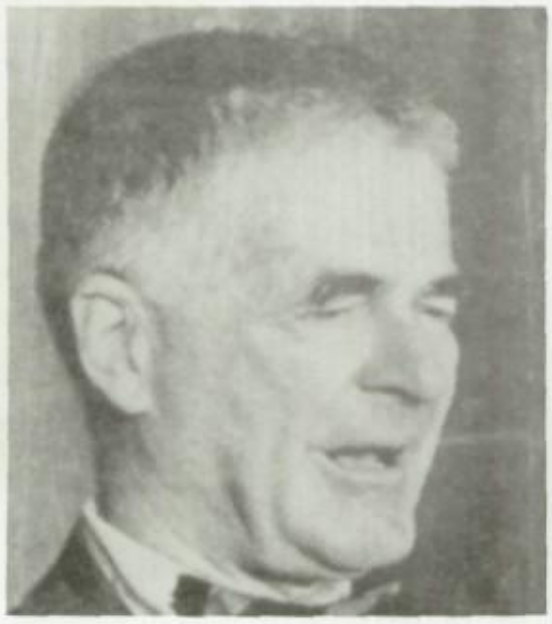
With the summer came the Watergate. Hearings and revelations of gross misuse of power within Richard Nixon's White House.

Former Presidential counsel, John Dean, first witness before the Watergate Committee to directly implicate President Nixon in the cover-up of the Watergate scandal.



Special Watergate Prosecutor, Archibald Cox, was fired by President Nixon after he refused to follow Nixon's order to cease legal action in which he sought to obtain more White House information than Nixon thought necessary. After a period of intense controversy . . .

. . . Leon Jaworski was named Special Watergate Prosecutor with safeguards to protect his tenure.

President Nixon, in Operation Candor, seeks to regain public confidence by increasing his contacts with the public through news conferences, etc. Operation Candor, however, was soon deemed inoperative.

Amid a storm of controversey, Spiro Agnew resigns as Vice President and later pleads "nolo contendere" to charges of income tax evasion.

President Nixon nominates and Congress over-whelmingly confirms Gerald Ford (Minority Leader in the House of Representatives) for the Vice Presidency.

The Middle East once again experiences war as Egypt and Syria attempt to regain territories lost to Israel in the 1967 War. The killing ended when . . .

Leonoid D. Brezhnev enjoys a chuckle with President Nixon during the Soviet Communist Party leader's visit to the United States.

. . . Henry Kissinger aided in negotiating a cease fire between Egypt and Israel. The agreement . . .

. . . was signed by representatives of Egypt and Israel in a tent at Kilometer 101 within Egypt.

As the year drew to a close, Americans were forced to find ways to cope with the ever-worsening energy crisis.

. . . LAST CHANCE FOR AMERICA

Time it was.
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories,
They're all that's you.
